Dear Members,

Before allowing the gas company an increase in rates please spend a few days and nights in northern Arizona without the amount of heat you need to keep warm. Many already live this way. More will if you increase the cost to heat ones home.

This seems immoral. Fewer jobs, lower pay, but an increase in basic services like heat and light. You can only tighten your belt so far. The executives of UNS gas can tighten theirs with less pain than many, many Arizonans. Please deny any request to raise rates.

Sincerely,

Veronica M. Wilson
